J Brand exhibit at Episys 2010 Global Signage & Labeling Convention

The sixth annual Episys Global Signage & Labelling Convention will be held this year in London on Tuesday May 25 at the award-winning Queen Elizabeth II Conference Center, which is London's most prestigious purpose built centre for professional meetings and events.

Attendees to the convention will hear from organisations on how they are achieving real and measurable improvements, and assess their compatibility for their own business. The event also provides an excellent opportunity for attendees to network with their peers and see the latest innovations in signage, mobile and digital solutions.

J Brand will be exhibiting in the "Innovation Pavilion" and will be showing various digital signage solutions including kiosks and touch screen solutions.

Win a Samsung 40" Widescreen

LED Full HD 1080P Ultra Slim TV, a World Cup Football Shirt of your choice + a selection of World Cup Football books.

Mayflex, one of J Brand's supply partners, has set up a World Cup Fantasy Football League which will give everyone another excuse to watch too much football during June!

Free to Play

Why not pick your own 'dream team' based on any players taking part in the World Cup, from any country. The game is simple to play and great fun - challenge your friends, colleagues and customers to see who really does have what it takes! If you're not a football follower you can pick a 'lucky dip' to select your winning team, so there's no excuse not to play.

Join the J Brand Mini-League

Every single team is automatically entered into the overall 'World League', but J Brand has also set up the 'J Brand Mini-League' for the J Brand colleagues, clients and friends to join. Outside of the fantastic prizes on offer from Mayflex, the winner of the J Brand Mini-League will win a fantastic Sanyo 12.1 Megapixel Digital Camera. More importantly they will have football bragging rights for the next 4 years!
