"My Customer, My Responsibility"

"Branded!" The J Brand Technology Update

The J Brand "X" mas Partner Session 2009

The directors of J Brand; Guy Jones, Tim Oldershaw and Dan Little cordially invite you to a "Social Networking Event" hosted by J Brand for customers and suppliers to meet and share a pre-Christmas drink with the J Brand team.

The J Brand ethos of "my customer, my responsibility" is based on trust and partnership and this event allows friends old and new to meet over a few drinks in a relaxed environment.

Top Prizes!

We will also be running the "Guy Jones Raffle", where all customers who attend are entered into a draw to win one of the following prizes:

- New style Playstation

- Apple iPod Touch

- Pure Pocket DAB Radio

The festive season is nearly upon us, so why not take the opportunity to make a trip into the West End of London to get your Christmas shopping done before the rush and then meet up with the J Brand team for a few drinks and a little light refreshment?

The now legendary afternoon will offer a chance to meet the J Brand team and many of our supply partners in a relaxed atmosphere at the historic "Champion" Pub (often referred to as the unofficial J Brand meeting room!).

Food, beer, Christmas shopping and a chance to catch up with old friends and foes; what more could you want?

Numbers are limited, so please confirm that you are able to attend as soon as possible.
